THE LIVINGFUEL EXPERIENCE

Proteins are the building blocks of life and required for virtually every function in the body. You hold in your hands the most sophisticated protein powder in existence! LivingProtein is the protein base of highly acclaimed LivingFuel SuperBerry and SuperGreens superfoods. It can be used to increase the protein levels of a LivingFuel SuperSmoothie, to add invaluable protein to traditional smoothies and juices or used as a basic meal replacement! LivingProtein is beyond protein! LivingProtein is a SuperAntioxidant protein with an unprecedented Total ORAC_{FL} of 18,900. It is an optimized blend of non-soy vegetarian proteins from brown rice and yellow pea proteins with specific vegetarian amino acids resulting in an ideal essential amino acids profile similar to animal protein. It also contains specific vitamins, minerals, live prebiotics, microencapsulated probiotics and digestive enzymes to maximize digestion and assimilation. LivingProtein is a foundational nutrition for everyone interested in adding a highly digestible superior plant protein to their diet - from world-class athletes to those with health challenges.
